

Through the DARKROOM DOOR

Monthly publication of the Cleveland Photographic Society

1549 Superior Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44114

November 1994 Volume 69, Number 6

CPS Holiday Party

The holidays are right around the corner and so is the CPS Annual Holiday Party. This year it will be held on Friday, December 9th in our clubroom. There will be a social happy hour from 6:30 to 7:30, followed by a catered buffet dinner. Also on tap for the evening is our traditional Robber's Gift Exchange. For those new to the club, this is where each person brings an anonymously-wrapped inexpensive gift (around $5.00, photographic or otherwise) and they are raffled off, until all are dispersed. But, along the way, each subsequent recipient can "rob" you of your gift in exchange for the one he or she has received. It's a lot of fun, and who knows, Santa may leave a few surprises too!

Our holiday party is open to all CPS members and their guests. Tickets are $12.50 per person and are on sale through December 2nd at every CPS Friday-night meeting, or call Robin Penca for reservations at 932-6227. Hope to see you there! □

News Briefs

CPS advertised its wares at the Photorama (a photographic flea market) in the Marriott Hotel at I-71 and 150th St. on September 25th. Taking up Doug Kerner's idea and initial spade work, with the Board's encouragement, Ken Arie, Jan Holkenborg, and Jim and Eileen Wheeler, manned a table to distribute club hand-outs. Jim wrote and produced a four-page brochure which included a story about his personal experiences with CPS, a description of club activities, a description of our photographic schools, and a membership blank. They report that many were interested in joining. □

The October 9th replay of a previously rained-out field trip to the Norwalk Raceway, although again threatened by an early-morning rain, dried itself out and gave the fifteen attendees their full measure of tire smoke, engine roar, dramatic pictures, and scrumptious food, all of this courtesy of Mary and Paul Kruger. □

On October 7th, attending CPS members had the opportunity to taste ten different kinds of beer, after the regular Pictorial and special-subject Pink slide competitions. Co-chairs Doug Kerner and Lori Fundak provided the libations, each bottle of which was named after an animal, from Elephant to Wart Hog. □

Peter Perry won the third-place prize in the 4th Annual Multi-Media Exhibit at the Manor of Art, Judson Manor, on University Circle. The exhibition which ended October 9th is targeted for senior citizens. □

The current Schools of Photography have 21 enrolled in the Fundamentals class and 18 enrolled in the Darkroom course. These numbers not only represent the significant contribution to club operating funds of about $3,000.00, but a potential pool of new members as well. □

Ruth and Gaylord Morrison were stranded in northern Utah when a drunk driver struck and damaged their motor home beyond repair in the second week of October. Both were shaken up, but neither was injured. At the request of Paul and Mary Kruger, as well as Mrs. Summer Patterson, members of the National Street Rod Association started providing material assistance and supportive fellowship within a few hours. Due to the remote location, such things as taxis, insurance adjusters, van rental agencies, and even police were hard to find. But thanks to the Pattersons they found a motel. □

Seven CPS members trekked to five covered bridges in north-east Ashtabula County on October 15th. Featured were cloudless blue skies, gorgeous fall colors, broad panoramics, rustic buildings, intriguing details, as well as good food and fellowship. □

November Activities

		1	2	3	4	5
					Creative
6	7	8	9	10	11 Nature Prints	12
13	14 Board Meeting	15	16	17	18 Pictorial Prints	19
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
27	28	29	30

December Activities

				1	2 Pictorial Slides	3
4	5	6	7	8	9 Holiday Party	10
11	12	13	14	15	16 People	17
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28	29	30	31

